Malikoff, this will have serious negative effects on the environment, a concern that has been expressed by a number of scientists. In the Journal of Wildlife Management, for example, he writes that the use of herbicides could cause the depletion of water resources, as well as the erosion of soil and the loss of the riparian zone. He also notes that the use of herbicides could cause the loss of the riparian zone, which is the area of land adjacent to a body of water.

DAVID SABLE APPOINTED DIRECT JURY PRESIDENT WILLIAM HODGE TO CHAIR PHOENIX JURY

PHOENIX, ARIZ. (AP) — David Sable, a former Phoenix juror, has been appointed as the first president of the Phoenix Jury Association. Sable, 52, was chosen by the association's members at a meeting held last week. He will lead the group in its efforts to improve the jury system and to educate the public about the importance of jury duty.

Sable, who has served on several juries, said he was motivated to join the association because he wanted to make a difference in the justice system. He said he was particularly impressed by the dedication and hard work of the jurors he had served with.

The Phoenix Jury Association was founded in 1995 and currently has about 100 members. It is a non-profit organization that works to promote the jury system and to provide support and resources for jurors.

Sable will be the first president of the association. He will be responsible for overseeing the association's activities and for representing the association in the community. He will also be responsible for recruiting new members and for promoting the association's goals.

Sable said he was honored to be chosen as the first president of the association and that he was committed to making a difference in the justice system.

The day I buried my 101-year-old mother-in-law

By Phyllis David Collins

My mother-in-law, who was 101 years old, died on Nov. 27. She had been in poor health for some time, but she was still very active and enjoyed life. She was a very kind and generous person, and she was always there for me. She was a very important part of my life, and I will miss her very much.

She was a very kind and generous person, and she was always there for me. She was a very important part of my life, and I will miss her very much.
